Non-Disclosure Commitment for Visitors

This commitment is made by the undersigned for the visit of the premises of Jet Aviation (hereinafter the “Visit”).

The undersigned will be shown and explained certain aspects of Jet Aviation’s business during the Visit and acknowledges the critical importance of maintaining absolute confidentiality concerning all aspects of the Visit including, but not limited to, the layout of the premises, the aircraft including their livery, registration and markings, the shops and material used.

Any type of recording, whether video, photo, audio or else is strictly forbidden during the Visit.

The undersigned understands that it is imperative that the information received or perceived during the Visit remains confidential and therefore commits to preserving its confidential nature and not to communicate it to, nor discuss it with, any individual external to Jet Aviation after the Visit.

This commitment shall remain in force for the duration of the Visit of the undersigned and for the five (5) following years.
